Ceremonial Complexes on Dartmoor

A talk by Emma Cunis

On Thursday 19th November 2026 @2.30pm

With 24 stone circles, 60% of the UK's stone rows & many standing stones and burial chambers, Dartmoor's extraordinary prehistoric monuments invite more questions than answers.

This fascinating talk explores context and the different phenomenological theories about their existence and purpose.

WI Community Hall, Newton Ferrers
Doors open at 14:00pm for 14:30

Open meeting for all u3a Members. New members welcome.

u3a Yealm district presents a screening of:

Josh O'Connor (The Crown; Challengers) leads the cast in this searing revival of Clifford Odets' knockout American classic.

1930s New York, at the height of the Depression. Joe Bonaparte is a gifted young violinist with a future in music, until a chance at fame and fortune lures him into the brutal world of professional boxing. He must confront what he's willing to sacrifice, who he's willing to become and how to find his place in a world that demands he choose a side.

Brought to life with a live string quartet and filmed live from the Almeida Theatre, Olivier Award-winner Sam Yates (Vanya) directs this propulsive drama exploring ambition, identity, and the high price of success.
